

What's Eating Your Collection?

Globular spider beetle Trigonogenius globulus

Adult

Size: 3-4mm

Shape: Globular, spider-like

Colour: Dark brown, with dark patches

Antennae: long and thin

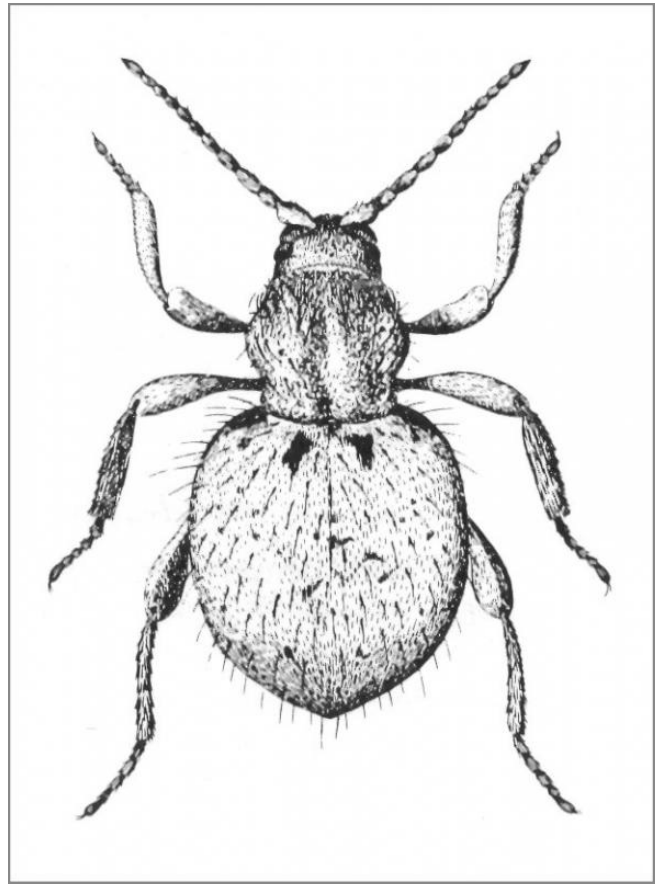

Distinguishing features: Hairy body with dark patches

Larvae are scavengers

Adults eat: very little

Often found near bird's nests

Note: More common in the north of England

Related Objects

Australian spider beetle
larva Ptinus tectus

Australian spider beetle
Ptinus tectus

Golden spider beetle
Niptus hololeucus