

What's Eating Your Collection?

Greenbottle Lucilia

These insects are a nuisance as the larvae live in animal dung.

There is a very similar species called Dasyphora which hibernates over winter, sometimes in attics.

They are not pest insects.

